God, who is the giver of every good gift, you are ever present in our lives and in the world. You act through us, your people, to care for and provide for everyone. We pray for the courage to break out of our insecurity and fear around money as we deepen our understanding of our relationship to you and how we use our financial resources to do your work in the world. We pray these things that we might know you better, that you will increase our desire and ability to give and help others through ministry and friendship and to gratefully commit ourselves to the work you have given us to do. Amen.

FROM THE INTERIM RECTOR

My favorite example of an epiphany—a dawning of the light—happened to a friend of mine who owned a wine store and was wondering why she was gaining weight. It suddenly came to her in blazing clarity—wine has calories! The reason I am here as your interim rector is an epiphany I had last fall—I can be their interim rector! You have the Holy Spirit to thank (or blame) for my presence.

I think of epiphanies as Aha! moments—things we should already know if we have been paying attention, or things that we have not been ready to perceive until the appointed time, as was the epiphany symbolized by the visitation to the manger from the Eastern sages that Jesus was born to save everyone, not just the Jewish people of God.

The older and wiser we grow, the more we are ready to receive truths that we might not have been able to grasp without life experience, especially the hurts and disappointments we all suffer. It helps to find a safe context in which we are open to receiving this truth. Often it requires soul work, and prayer, and someone who can help us face truths that we prefer to hide from ourselves. My beloved therapist/spiritual director/guru has been walking with me through my life story for the past two years, to shine light on events that need clarification and illumination, confession and repentance. You can thank her for my presence here as well.

My favorite set of prayers in the BCP are the prayers in the Marriage service. I find they provide a perfect template for how we are to treat each other in all aspects of life, as fellow Christians. I think they are especially appropriate to consider as we elect new vestry members and a new senior warden; for those who are taking on this sacred obligation; and for all the members of All Saints'; as the way for us to walk in love as Christ has loved us.

These are my favorite three prayers, which are the most germane to the ordering of our vestry:

- Grant that their wills may be so knit together in your will, and their spirits in your Spirit, that they may grow in love and peace with you and one another all the days of their life.
- Give them grace, when they hurt each other, to recognize and acknowledge their fault, and to seek each other's forgiveness and yours.
- Make their life together a sign of Christ's love to this sinful and broken world, that unity may overcome estrangement, forgiveness heal guilt, and joy conquer despair.

As you prayerfully consider your vote, be open to epiphanies. Look for candidates who are committed to this parish, who are creative thinkers, who are open to compromise. Consider the one who quietly does the work needed, and may see and know more than we do. Look for a broad representation of generations and experience, so that we have different voices and vision. And look for those who value the unity of this parish above their own personal needs and desires, just as married couples are called to do.

If these prayers are too deep for you, you can fall back on the Rotary Four-Way Test of the things we think, say, and do. I have preached on these ideals more than once. Choose people who you believe will make decisions with these goals in mind:

- Is it the truth?
- Is it fair to all concerned?
- Will it build good will and better friendships?
- Is it beneficial to all concerned?

Epiphany is the season in which we celebrate the coming of the light. All Saints' has not exactly been the people who have walked in darkness for the past two years, but more the seed that has had an unexpectedly long germination. At any rate, we can live in hope with this promise from God:

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined.—Isaiah 9:2

Blessings upon you all, dear people of God! Sarah+

Talbot House Bakery creates delicious baked goods and provides transitional job skills training to women in early recovery from substance use disorder. The Bakery is currently renovating a new space and will be moving to their permanent location in the next few months. Until their new space is ready, Talbot House Bakery has temporarily partnered with All Saints' to use our kitchen 1 or 2 days a week, for the holiday season. This will not affect the operation of our Saints' Brew ministry as they will be baking after Saints' Brew closes, provide their own ingredients and bring everything they need with them.

The Bakery will be taking orders and can either deliver your order to you for a $5 delivery fee, or they can be picked up at Talbot House at 2434 South Eason Blvd.

All Saints' is pleased to share our kitchen with the Talbot House Bakery ministry. Every purchase from Talbot House Bakery helps a woman in recovery from substance abuse rebuild her life! Start placing your orders today by calling the Bakery at 662-255-2566!

CHRISTIAN FORMATION

The Sunday Lectionary 9:30 a.m. Led by Les Alvis

A new Church Year began on December 2 with the First Sunday of Advent, and that means the lectionary begins a new gospel. The 2018-19 lectionary focuses on the Gospel of Luke. The Sunday Lectionary Class meets every Sunday year-round for lively discussion of the day's readings with an emphasis on seeing the scriptures as timely and current. If you've been thinking about giving the Sunday Lectionary Class a try (or if the thought has never occurred to you), this is a perfect time to start. The class meets every Sunday morning at 9:30 in the south breakout room. Call the church office to be added to the weekly email for the class.

A big heartfelt thank you to Ken Murphree, who retired as our Education for Ministry (EfM) co-mentor in December. Ken served in this capacity for 4 years and he will be missed! Thank you for your service and guidance in this important ministry of the church! We also would like to thank Virginia Chambers who will continue to serve as co-mentor of the EfM group.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD Sundays at 9:30 a.m.

Level I: Children ages 3 years – 2nd grade

Level II: Children in 3rd – 6th grades

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a mainstay at All Saints'. For 3-year-olds to those in the sixth grade, it is a Montessori approach to the religious formation of children, rooted in the Bible and the liturgy of the church. It also adheres to the educational principals of Maria Montessori, whose philosophy was to teach children with an emphasis on independence, freedom within limits, and respect for a child's intrinsic desire to learn. Each atrium – or classroom – is led by an adult catechist with a minimum of 90 hours of training. Our certified catechists are: Level I: Tricia Edmonson and Joellen Murphree Level II: Kamme Riddle, Stacy White and Marrion Winders. Assistants are Sue Ann Averett, Kelly Fleming, Michelle Hester and Emily Jackson.

LIVING IN CHRIST 7th – 12th graders Sundays at 9:30 a.m. Sr. High Sunday School room

This class, led by the very capable Josh Westmoreland, offers topical, yet Bible-based lessons based on current events and other trending subjects that have an immediate relevancy to youth. What better way to capture the attention of a young person than to discuss things that are important to them, to talk about what they are talking about. There is always great conversation, deep discussions, and usually donuts!
