God, who is the giver of every good gift, you are ever present in our lives and in the world. You act through us, your people, to care for and provide for everyone. We pray for the courage to break out of our insecurity and fear around money as we deepen our understanding of our relationship to you and how we use our financial resources to do your work in the world. We pray these things that we might know you better, that you will increase our desire and ability to give and help others through ministry and friendship and to gratefully commit ourselves to the work you have given us to do. Amen. Borrowed from Trinity Episcopal Church, Swanton, Vermont

FROM THE INTERIM RECTOR

BLISTERS

A few years ago, a woman for whom I was doing pre-wedding counseling told me about a camping trip she had taken with her fiancé and his sons. Camping was not her thing, but she was willing. During an arduous hike, she stopped to rest, took off her boots, and discovered her feet were covered with blisters. Her fiancé took the time to minister to her, rubbing her feet and covering her blisters with moleskin, so she could proceed in comfort. She said that in the midst of the stresses inherent in planning a wedding and merging two households, she often thought back to that day, to remind herself why she wanted to marry her fiancé. I loved this story, and being of a like mindset, she and I began to think of the broader metaphorical implications of this little icon of loving kindness.

People can rub us the wrong way. Life can rub us the wrong way. Sometimes we can escape from the irritation; sometimes we just have to keep on going. But the blisters are annoying. They make us cranky, they cause us to move slowly. The big blisters can even hurt our hearts. Sometimes we just want to sit down and cry while we wait for our heart to heal. Sometimes we want to lash out at whatever is causing the irritation. Sometimes we just limp along, suffering and complaining, making everyone around us miserable. But there is a remedy available to us. Those of us who are part of a faith community can always find someone who will sit down with us, put soothing moleskin over our spiritual blisters, and encourage us to go on—if we stop and admit we are suffering. Most people don't have spiritual X-ray vision to discern our hidden hurts. Yet even if we have no such community, even if no one comes forward to help us, God is always waiting to help us and heal us—and God knows our wounds without being told.

Life gets more complicated every day. People are stressed, and overworked, and beset by all sorts of challenges. Blister-causing situations pop up everywhere. We all have a choice in our response. New shoes do not cause blisters on purpose, and most of the time, neither does life. We can't control life; we can control our reaction to it. Take time to examine your heart. Are you rubbing blisters, or soothing them? Being patient with the blisters of life is hard at first. New shoes often cause blisters, but when they are broken in, they become old friends. As we continue to grow in the faith, we will learn to do what Paul advises the Ephesians to do: "Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you." (Ephesians 4:31-32) As our faith becomes as familiar as our favorite pair of slippers, we will learn to go through life neither inflicting blisters nor suffering unnecessarily from them. We will have the moleskin of Christ's love at the ready, eager to bind up our own feet and the feet of others, to keep us all moving forward joyfully on the path of faith.

Sarah+

Join Sarah as she leads a book study on
The Great Divorce by C.S. Lewis
Tuesdays at 6:00 p.m. July 9 through August 13
In the south breakout room of the Parish Hall

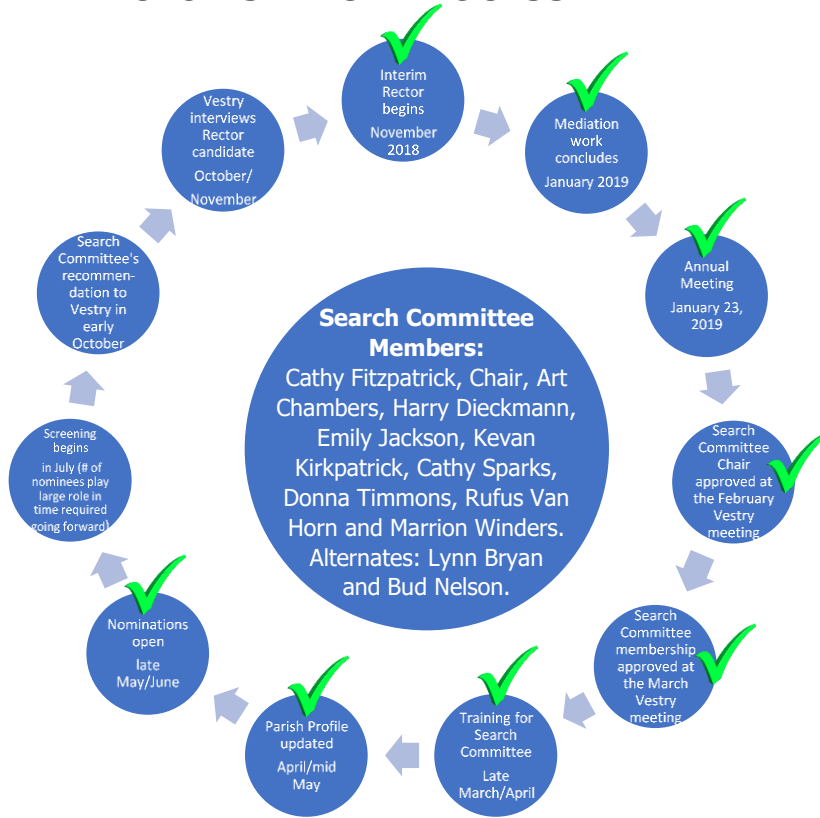

In the opening words of the Eagles' magnum opus, "Hotel California", Don Henley sings: "There she stood in the doorway; I heard the mission bell, and I was thinking to myself, 'This could be Heaven or this could be Hell.'" The song has always reminded me of C.S. Lewis' great allegory about heaven and hell, from which I have derived most of my soteriology—the study of the doctrine of salvation. Spoiler alert—for Lewis, the place where time is stopped "on that dismal moment when only a few shops have lit up and it is not yet dark enough for their windows to look cheering" turns out, in the end, to be either hell or, if one chooses heaven, purgatory. Unlike the Hotel California, where "you can check in anytime you like, but you can never leave", there is always and eternally a choice to be made in Lewis's universe. Heaven is always available to those who are willing to accept God's love and healing.

Join me for a six-week in-depth study of this classic on Tuesday evenings from 6:00 -7:00 p.m., beginning on Tuesday, July 9. You have plenty of time to get the book, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest it. We have a limited number of copies in the office or you can order your own copy from www.amazon.com—$10.75 for paperback; $11.99 for Kindle. We will have lots of fun, and gain a deeper understanding of God's grace. -Sarah+

RECTOR SEARCH PROCESS TIMELINE

UPDATE FROM THE SEARCH COMMITTEE

The Nomination Phase of the Rector Search is now complete which means the committee will be sending packets to the names that were submitted for consideration. Along with the Parish Profile and information about Tupelo, a letter will be sent to the submitted names to invite them into a process of mutual discernment. As much as we would like all those nominees to agree to enter into the search process, this will likely not be the case.

Once we hear back from all the nominees as to their interest in being considered, the screening process will begin. We anticipate to begin that phase of the search in early July. Please continue to keep the work of this committee in your prayers.

THE VESTRY COVENANT

Thank you to Charlie Buckley for building and donating the frame for the Vestry Covenant that hangs in the Conference room.

The Covenant reads in part...
"Recognizing that Holy Scripture provides authority for governing our behavior and relationships with one another and with the congregation, and acknowledging Saint Paul's directive to Timothy (I Timothy 4:12) concerning his role as church leader to be "an example to the believers in speech, life, love, faith, and purity," we agree to uphold our Vestry Covenant, striving to love one another, treating each vestry member with respect, seeking God's will by striving for unity in all matters, and to be an example to the congregation". WELCOME

CtK welcomes new members, Janet and Bruce Pittman! They have joined Christ the King by membership transfer from Trinity Lutheran Church in Russellville, Missouri. The Pittmans have recently moved to Saltillo and we are delighted to have them worship with us!

Notes from Synod Assembly

Jimmy and Precious Hill served as Christ the King's delegates to this year's assembly held in Chattanooga May 30 - June 2. The most important business this year was the election of Rev. Kevin Strickland as bishop-elect, following Bishop Gordy's retirement at the end of his term. The assembly thanked Bishop Gordy for his service to the SES for the last twelve years and wished him Godspeed in retirement.

Emily Jackson also attended assembly as a member of Synod Council. Congratulations to Emily for her election by the assembly to serve a six-year term on the Synod Disciplinary Committee!

Thanks to Jimmy, Precious and Emily for representing Christ the King so well!

Meet the Southeastern Synod's Bishop-Elect The Rev. Kevin Strickland

The Rev. Kevin L. Strickland, Chicago, was elected June 2 to serve a six-year term as bishop of the Southeastern Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). The election took place during the synod assembly, held May 30 – June 2 at the Chattanooga (Tenn.) Convention Center.

Strickland was elected on the fifth ballot, with 199 votes. The Rev. Tiffany Chaney, pastor of Gathered by Grace Lutheran Church in Montgomery, Ala., received 158.

The bishop-elect has served as assistant to the bishop and executive for worship with the ELCA churchwide organization in Chicago since 2014. He served as pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Nashville, Tenn., from 2011 to 2014, and St. Paul Lutheran Church in Maryville, Tenn., from 2008 to 2011.

Strickland received a Bachelor of Arts from Newberry (S.C.) College in 2004 and a Master of Divinity from Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in 2008. Newberry is one of 27 ELCA colleges and universities, and Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary of Lenoir-Rhyne University, Hickory, N.C., is one of seven ELCA seminaries.

Strickland will be installed October 5 at St. Philip's Episcopal Cathedral in Atlanta. The Rev. H. Julian Gordy has served as bishop since 2007 and will retire August 31.

CHRISTIAN FORMATION

EDUCATION for MINISTRY

Lay persons face the difficult and often subtle task of interpreting the richness of the church's faith in a complex and confusing world. They need a theological education which supports their faith and also teaches them to express that faith in day-to-day events. As the emphasis on lay ministry has grown, EfM has come to play an important role by providing a program that develops an informed and knowledgeable laity. The EfM program is preparation for the ministry to which we all are called. It is that vocation for which we pray at the end of the Eucharist: "And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord." Areas of study include, the Hebrew Bible, the New Testament, Church History and Theology, Ethics, and Interfaith Encounter.

Registration for the 2019/2020 Academic Year for New and Returning Students is Now Open! Registration will close on July 7

If you are a past EfM student and would like a refresher of one of the years or would like to complete your degree in EfM, you are welcome to join our group in the fall!

This class meets weekly, in the evening, September through May. Tuition is $375 for the year and includes books. To register, please contact Tommie Moore at tommie@allsaintstupelo.org or 842-4386.

The Sunday Lectionary 8:30 a.m.

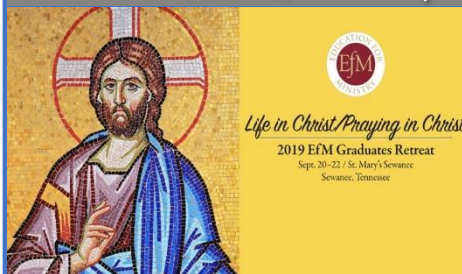

In the south breakout room

As we move into the long green Season after Pentecost, the lectionary readings return to the Gospel of Luke. They will also begin a series of chronological readings from the Old Testament prophets. Both the gospel readings and this tour through the prophets offer rich texts to be wrestled with. The Sunday Lectionary Class meets every Sunday morning year-round in the south breakout room of the Parish Hall. Each gathering begins with a presentation of selected scripture readings for the day followed by lively conversation. The class meets at 8:30 a.m. throughout the summer. Call the church office at 842-4386 to start receiving the class' weekly email.
