God, who is the giver of every good gift, you are ever present in our lives and in the world. You act through us, your people, to care for and provide for everyone. We pray for the courage to break out of our insecurity and fear around money as we deepen our understanding of our relationship to you and how we use our financial resources to do your work in the world. We pray these things that we might know you better, that you will increase our desire and ability to give and help others through ministry and friendship and to gratefully commit ourselves to the work you have given us to do. Amen. Borrowed from Trinity Episcopal Church, Swanton, Vermont

FROM THE INTERIM RECTOR

When I was young, my family attended Congress Heights Presbyterian Church in Washington, D.C. We had one service at 11:00 a.m. This was as God intended, as far as I knew. It was not until I became an Episcopalian that I learned of multiple service times to suit people's personal preferences: music or not, Rite I or 1928 BCP, early or later.

We did change the service time at Congress Heights in the summer, however. The church was not air conditioned, and D.C. summers are as hot and humid as the worst the Deep South has to offer. So in summer we had church at 10:00 a.m. It was still hot, and the hand fans with a picture of the nation's capital in the snow were not much help.

I confess I am still an advocate of one morning service, especially when the church has plenty of empty pews, which is often the case in the summer. Many church growth studies have shown that visitors are more likely to come back to a service in a church that is more than half full. I can produce theological arguments as well. In the reading from Acts for Pentecost, Luke writes: "When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability."

The entire group of believers was all together in one place, at one time, when the Holy Spirit made an appearance. Everyone witnessed the spectacular events, and all were all empowered for ministry. Imagine what might have happened if there had been two services, and the Holy Spirit had appeared at only one. As Luke describes the aftermath, all who witnessed the events were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others, the ones who weren't there, sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." Imagine what a rift that would have caused between the two congregations.

In the spirit of Pentecost, so that we can all have one worship experience this summer, and so we can get to know members of All Saints' and CTK whom we seldom see, we are going to celebrate all together this summer, at 9:30 a.m. We will still have one ELW service a month. The Sunday Lectionary class will meet at 8:30 a.m.

The summer schedule will begin, appropriately, on Pentecost Sunday, June 9, followed by a shrimp boil. We will end with a Back to School Bash on August 4. As an extra incentive, Taylor Sparks is taking hymn requests—not limited to the Hymnal 1982. We are going to have fun! Hallelujah, thine the glory, hallelujah, amen! Hallelujah, thine the glory, revive us again!

As we have been contemplating this schedule change, two verses of "Come, risen Lord", one of my favorite Anglican communion hymns, has been running through my head. I commend it to your reflection.

One body we, one body who partake,
one church united in communion blest;
one name we bear, one bread of life we break,
with all thy saints on earth and saints at rest.

One with each other, Lord, for one in thee who art one Savior and one Living Head;
then open thou our eyes, that we may see;
be known to us in breaking of the bread.

RECTOR SEARCH PROCESS TIMELINE

UPDATE FROM THE SEARCH COMMITTEE

We are excited to announce that we are now in the nomination phase of the search process. The nomination phase will last for 30 days and may be extended to 45 days if the committee chooses.

There is a red nomination box, along with nomination forms, that will be in the church office during the week and in the back of the church on Sundays. Nominations forms must be signed in order to be considered.

The updated Parish Profile is now available on the All Saints' website at <http://allsaintstupelo.com/all/wp-content/uploads/2019/05/Parish-Profile-updated-May-2019.pdf>.

Please continue to keep the Search Committee in your prayers: Good and gracious God, we come before you in a time of transition as we seek a new rector for All Saints' and Christ the King. Send your blessings upon our Search Committee as they work to find a pastor, priest, and teacher who will boldly proclaim the gospel, faithfully administer the sacraments, and steadfastly serve this parish with love and compassion. Help us to navigate this process with a spirit of hope, trusting that you are ever supporting and guiding us. All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

April Activities

On Wednesday, April 3, Jill Rogers the Assistance Manager of Information Services at the Tupelo-Lee County Library, was present at Saints' Brew to inform guests of a new program that the library implemented. Learning Express is focused on developing interview skills and other workforce development skills and is completely free and accessible online at the library.

On April 4, 7 clients attended the Saints' Brew Legal Clinic and received legal advice on a wide variety of legal issues.

On Sunday, April 14, the All Saints' EYC made lunch bags for the guests at Saints' Brew. These bags included freshly prepared sandwiches and other snacks that made for an awesome gift to our guests. We were able to hand them out on Monday, April 14. The EYC regularly donates food if they have any remaining after their Sunday meetings and have volunteers frequently at Saints' Brew. We really appreciate our EYC!!

Jason Martin and a videographer visited Saints' Brew on Monday, April 22, to film footage for a promotional video that they are creating for the Tupelo-Lee County Hunger Coalition. Saints' Brew will also be able to use this video and footage for our own promotions and advertising.

We were able to order custom screen-printed t-shirts that would serve a dual-purpose. First, they are appreciation gifts for our diligent volunteers and secondly, we will be able to sell the remaining t-shirts for a small profit.

I attended the monthly All Saints' potluck in April and was able to share the service numbers and programming that we have accomplished since November 2018, when I became interim Saints' Brew coordinator.

Financial Notes:

Our 2019 Year-To-Date debits versus credits are not as in balance as I had planned or hoped for. Our YTD credits (or operations cost) is $14,731.49 and our YTD debits (or donations) is $8,971.00, which is a difference of $5,760.49. This means we are spending more per month than we are bringing in. There are a few issues that have occurred over the last few months that can account for a large portion of this overage. In March 2019, Saints' Brew spent $2,237.42 on the walk-in freezer compressor repair and in April 2019 we spent $719.11 for the fundraiser t-shirts. We will recoup the cost of the t-shirts as we sell them. The compressor repair and t-shirts total $2,956.53, which leaves a remaining $2,803.96 of overage on food cost, supplies, and other Saints' Brew necessities. This extra cost is due to the fact that we have been serving more people since the beginning of 2019 than we were in 2018. Our original inventory and order forms were created using an average plate count of 80 per day. Over the last few months we have increased our average plate count to 100 plates per day. Also, it is typical for non-profits to experience a post-Christmas slump in charitable donations. It is now my responsibility to make-up for this overage through increased fundraising. Our budget is still very healthy with our current account balance of $51,182.59.

Gear Up for a Faithful Summer

Locate a place of worship: If family travel intersects with Sunday services, plan to worship with an ELCA congregation near your destination. Use the "Find a Congregation" tool at www.elca.org to locate one. If there isn't one nearby, consider searching online for another church with which the ELCA is connected, such as the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) or the Episcopal Church.

Create a "faith on the road kit": Space can be scarce when you pack for a trip, but including a bag, box or other small container with a Bible, candle, shell, hymnal, cross or other items that help you study or pray together offers a physical reminder to kids that faith is part of any journey.

Pray on the way: Whether you're traveling to a wedding, a family reunion or a vacation destination, praying together can help ease little travelers' worries (and yours). Before you begin a road trip or perhaps while you are sitting in the airport, say a prayer. Make up your own as a family or try this one: Keep us kind to each other. Keep us safe on the road. Keep us open to seeing you wherever we go. Amen.

EDUCATION for MINISTRY

Lay persons face the difficult and often subtle task of interpreting the richness of the church's faith in a complex and confusing world. They need a theological education which supports their faith and also teaches them to express that faith in day-to-day events. As the emphasis on lay ministry has grown, EfM has come to play an important role by providing a program that develops an informed and knowledgeable laity. The EfM program is preparation for the ministry to which we all are called. It is that vocation for which we pray at the end of the Eucharist: "And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord." Areas of study include, the Hebrew Bible, the New Testament, Church History and Theology, Ethics, and Interfaith Encounter.

Registration for the 2019/2020 Academic Year for New and Returning Students is Now Open!

If you are a past EfM student and would like a refresher of one of the years or would like to complete your degree in EfM, you are welcome to join our group in the fall!

This class meets weekly, in the evening, September through May. Tuition is $375 for the year and includes books. To register, please contact Tommie Moore at tommie@allsaintstupelo.org or 842-4386.

Registration will close on July 7!

The Sunday Lectionary

the class will meet at 8:30 a.m.

As June transitions from the Great Fifty Days of Easter to the long green Season after Pentecost, the lectionary readings return to the Gospel of Luke. They will also begin a series of chronological readings from the Old Testament prophets. Both the gospel readings and this tour through the prophets offer rich texts to be wrestled with. The Sunday Lectionary Class meets every Sunday morning year-round in the south breakout room of the Parish Hall. Each gathering begins with a presentation of selected scripture readings for the day followed by lively conversation. The class meets at 9:30 a.m. on June 2, and beginning on June 9 and throughout the summer, at 8:30 a.m. Call the church office to start receiving the class' weekly email.
