God, who is the giver of every good gift, you are ever present in our lives and in the world. You act through us, your people, to care for and provide for everyone. We pray for the courage to break out of our insecurity and fear around money as we deepen our understanding of our relationship to you and how we use our financial resources to do your work in the world. We pray these things that we might know you better, that you will increase our desire and ability to give and help others through ministry and friendship and to gratefully commit ourselves to the work you have given us to do. Amen. Borrowed from Trinity Episcopal Church, Swanton, Vermont

Recently, our website and email accounts were moved to a new server, with better controls and security measures in place. We followed all the necessary steps to make sure all households would not have any interruption in email communications from us. Unfortunately, some of our emails (the weekly email, the Lectionary email, etc.) being sent through Constant Contact to parishioners with .net email addresses were not delivered as they should have been. We believe we have corrected the problem and you should not be experiencing any interruption in communication from us. As an added extra measure, if you still are not receiving our emails, please check your "spam" folder. If you find All Saints' emails there, mark our address as "not spam". Please call the office at 842-4386 with any questions about this issue. We apologize for any inconvenience this has caused and appreciate your patience and understanding as we work through this issue.

Congratulations

Organist, Adam Stringer has accepted a position as the full time Organist/Choir Director at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Oxford. Adam's last Sunday with us was September 29. We are thankful for Adam's work at All Saints' and wish him the very best in his new role at St. Peter's.

FROM THE INTERIM RECTOR

There are two true-life parables from my past which pop up in my consciousness from time to time, usually when I hear someone continuing to complain about something which they could actually do something about, or when I find myself in the same place.

The first is the parable of the dishwasher. My friend Marsha had a dishwasher inconveniently situated right around the corner from a drawer with a protruding handle. It was impossible to open or close the dishwasher without fiddling with the drawer. It would have been a matter of moments to remove the handle, but she lived with the problem for years, despite my laughing at her every time I visited. She finally got around to fixing it and couldn't wait to tell me.

The second is the parable of the shoes. The dress code rules were simple in my Savannah, GA, catering business. White tops, black bottoms, comfortable shoes to prevent complaining about hurting feet. One night my assistant Brenda and I were coming back from catering out on the Isle of Hope. Brenda had been complaining about her shoes all night. Actually, she had been complaining about them for weeks. All of a sudden, as we drove through the dark marshes, Brenda rolled down the window, snatched her shoes off her feet, and threw them out the window. "I'll never wear those shoes again!" she cried triumphantly. We laughed all the way home.

Jesus sent his disciples out to witness with these words: "If a village doesn't welcome you or listen to you, shake off the dust of that place from your feet as you leave." In other words, don't sit there complaining that no one will listen to you or help you; take the initiative. Leave behind people and things that are hurting you and holding you back. Move on to a place where you are welcome and where you can prosper.

In this life, we do far too much accepting, and not nearly enough changing. The Serenity Prayer addresses this predicament: "God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference." Yes, the prayer is about big issues, but developing the courage to change starts with baby steps. If you can't bring yourself to throw away shoes that hurt your feet, how can you terminate a destructive relationship? If you can't summon up the energy to change the handle on a drawer, how will you ever be able to leave an unsatisfying job?

We tend to get stuck in the routine, which is not all bad. If we had to reinvent our lives every day, we'd never get anywhere. But every once in a while, it's good to take inventory, to look around and see what needs to be changed.

It helps to start with the easy stuff. Walk through your house and take note of all the places where you make do. Go through your closets. Clean out the clutter. Fix things that are broken. Then move on to the hard stuff—work, relationships, finances, your heart. Ask God to show you how to change—both attitudes and actions. We tend to accept a lot more in life, I think, than God expects us to. The same God whose son appeared in human form, humbled himself by death on a cross, and was raised to the heights of heaven, all for our salvation, does not strike me as the kind of God who expects us to settle for pinching shoes and stuck drawers, or pinched and stuck lives.

RECTOR SEARCH PROCESS TIMELINE

UPDATE FROM THE SEARCH COMMITTEE

By now you're familiar with the Rector Search Process Timeline. The Search Committee will soon check off the next circle and make a recommendation to the Vestry. This will be followed by the Vestry inviting the rector candidate to Tupelo for meetings and interviews, after which the Vestry will vote on extending a call. This is very exciting news!

Please continue to keep the work of the Search Committee and Vestry in your prayers:

Good and gracious God, we come before you in a time of transition as we seek a new rector for All Saints' and Christ the King. Send your blessings upon our Search Committee as they work to find a pastor, priest, and teacher who will boldly proclaim the gospel, faithfully administer the sacraments, and steadfastly serve this parish with love and compassion. Help us to navigate this process with a spirit of hope, trusting that you are ever supporting and guiding us. All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PARISH MINISTRIES

VISION 2020
NOW IS THE TIME

Beer & Brats & Time & Talent

While you're enjoying the Oktoberfest Beer & Brats event hosted by Christ the King on October 9, be sure to visit the displays that will be set up around the parish hall that evening to highlight the many ways to get involved in all kinds of activities, programs and ministries offered by All Saints' and Christ the King. Stewardship of money – and our generosity with it – is a big part of what enables the church's day-to-day operations. But stewardship of time and talent – and our generosity with each of those – is what translates financial commitment into action and outreach.

Not only do All Saints' and Christ the King offer numerous opportunities for fruitful investment of parishioners' time and talent, but the mission of the church depends on it. Just as broad and increased participation in financial giving is essential to the next chapter in the life of the parish, so is broad and increased participation in programs and ministries a key to, as our wardens have noted, turning the corner.

Now is the time for renewal of participation and for self-reflection on the ways in which we can each increase our involvement and offer the gifts we have to further the mission of the church. Come and see the possibilities on October 9. It will be an evening of fun, fellowship, and opportunity.

AUGUST ACTIVITIES

On August 1, I was notified that Saints' Brew was awarded an Emergency Food and Shelter Grant of $3,800 (an increase of $500 from last year's grant).

Coffee and Conversation was on Tuesday, August 6 and we had 15 attendees.

Other meetings during August: City of Tupelo Homeless Outreach Team and City of Tupelo Homeless Task Force Meeting.

All Saints' Episcopal, St. Luke Methodist Church, The Orchard, Cooking as a First Language, and numerous All Saints' and community volunteers held 3 community dinners during the summer. Our third meal was Tuesday, August 27 and we served over 95 guests a nutritious, affordable, and accessible meal that they could recreate at home if possible.

We have been very blessed over the last few months to receive monthly food donations from our food insecurity partners. Food donations from a brunch held at All Saints' included fruit and items we were able to serve at lunch. The Link Centre donated food from an event. St. Luke Food Pantry has been donating cereal on a very regular basis and gave us a large quantity in August. FAITH Food Pantry is also very generous with their regular fruit donation.

September is "Hunger Action" month so I am planning to do an advocacy campaign via social media and to get different groups to donate and volunteer with Saints' Brew.

We still need volunteers! If you can volunteer Monday, Wednesday, or Friday, please let me know!

Red, which represents the Holy Spirit, is the liturgical color of the day. Luther believed that the Reformation was a direct result of the Holy Spirit moving him and other reformers to action. Today, Reformation Sunday is a celebration of the Holy Spirit continuing to work in our lives, moving us toward God's grace and mercy.

A Message from the Rev. H. Julian Gordy, bishop, retired

Dear Friends of the Southeastern Synod,

After a dozen years serving in the Office of Bishop of the Southeastern Synod, some thanks are in order. While the work has not always been happy work, it has almost always been meaningful work and has never been dull.

Thank you, Southeastern Synod friends, for allowing me to serve the church in this rewarding way. You have given me far more credit than I have deserved, especially since I was blessed to do this work with such a competent, faithful, and hard-working staff, all of whom were aware that we did this work together and not for ourselves.

As I leave office, I leave grateful for the trust, the prayers, the kind words, and the many ways you have shown your support for me and your love for this church and this synod. This has been a challenging, daunting, and exhausting call. But it has also been an inspiring and very blessed call. I am humbled and grateful to have served as your bishop.

I have no doubt that I leave the synod in extraordinarily capable hands. Bishop Kevin Strickland is a faithful disciple of Jesus who loves the church and will serve it well. He has chosen an excellent staff who are likewise faithful and committed to the work of the gospel. I look forward to seeing where our bishop and his staff will lead us as we move into this new day for our synod.

So, thank you, dear friends. And "may the God of peace, who brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, make you complete in everything good so that you may do God's will, working among us that which is pleasing in God's sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen"

In Christ's hope and peace, Julian

THE SCREWTAPE LETTERS

Led by Rev. Dr. Sarah Gaede

Tuesdays in October at 6:00 p.m.

Begins Tuesday, October 1

In the south breakout room of the Parish Hall

The Screwtape Letters by C.S. Lewis is a classic masterpiece of religious satire that entertains readers with its sly and ironic portrayal of human life and foibles from the vantage point of Screwtape, a highly placed assistant to "Our Father Below." C.S. Lewis's

The Screwtape Letters is the most engaging account of temptation—and triumph over it—ever written. For those planning to attend the book study, we have a limited number of copies of the book available in the office.

For Adults

The Sunday Lectionary

Led by Les Alvis and Caleb Bedillion

Each week the Sunday Lectionary Class takes a close look at selected readings appointed for the day's liturgy. A lively discussion follows as the class wrestles with the readings to find meanings for today. The presentations and discussions aim to be enlightening, nourishing and challenging (and many say they're frequently entertaining as well). With participants ranging from the outspoken to the quiet listener and everything in between, there is a place for everyone seeking to hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church. All are welcome, especially visitors and newcomers. Contact the church office to be added to the group's weekly email list.
